Food: Leaving the Potential of Coronavirus Outside the Door

A neighbor shared this video on the best way to treat your groceries and take-out food to ensure that you are not inadvertently bringing the coronavirus into your home. <https://nam10.safelinks.protection.outlook.com/?url=https%3A%2F%2Fyoutu.be%2FsjDuwc9KBps&data=02%7C01%7C%7C77ae427f49cf45968af308d7d0d2bd63%7C84df9e7fe9f640afb435aaaaaaaaaaaa%7C1%7C0%7C637207475840262851&sdata=3UdF%2FeKETGEaDEr0slqcDu3TWyQKuZQ3Utw%2BlrgD9b4%3D&reserved=0>

Walk By Music

Marcia Vogler is continuing her sunset harp concerts on the porch while weather permits: 5pm at 324 Bellino.

Something for Saturday – A Rainbow Hunt

A neighbor sent in information about a fun idea that other neighborhoods in LA have adopted. It's a rainbow hunt for kids (and grown-ups). Castellammare Mesa will have their rainbow hunt all day Saturday, March 28. All you have to do to participate is draw/color/paint/print from the web a copy of a rainbow, place it in a street-facing window or on a front door/tree/sidewalk by or before 8:00 A.M. on Saturday morning. And the day-long hunt begins. OK, there are no prizes for this other than getting out into the fresh air six feet apart from anyone, but it's a nice diversion for kids of all ages.

Humor from the Hood

A different way of seeing things. If you're not familiar with the work of Steven Wright, he's the erudite comic who once said: "I woke up one morning, and all of my stuff had been stolen and replaced by exact duplicates." His mind sees things differently than most of us do. Here are some of his gems:

- I'd kill for a Nobel Peace Prize.
- 827% of all statistics are made up on the spot.
- Borrow money from pessimists -- they don't expect it back.
- When everything is coming your way, you're in the wrong lane.
- If your car could travel at the speed of light, would your headlights still work?
- OK, so what's the speed of dark?
- My mechanic told me, "I couldn't repair your brakes, so I made your horn louder."
- How do you tell when you're out of invisible ink?
- A conscience is what hurts when all your other parts feel so good. A clear conscience is usually the sign of a bad memory.
- What happens if you get scared half to death twice?
- Depression is merely anger without enthusiasm.
- Experience is something you don't get until just after you need it.
- Ambition is a poor excuse for not having enough sense to be lazy. Hard work may pay off in the future, but laziness pays off now.
- To steal ideas from one person is plagiarism; to steal from many is research.
- A conclusion is the place where you got tired of thinking.
- If everything seems to be going well, you have obviously overlooked something.
- If at first you don't succeed, destroy all evidence that you tried.
- Why do psychics have to ask you for your name?
- I almost had a psychic girlfriend, but she left me before we met.

- All those who believe in psychokinesis, raise my hand.
- Everyone has a photographic memory; some just don't have any film.
- The problem with the gene pool is that there is no lifeguard.
- I intend to live forever. So far, so good.

Growing List of Volunteers

If you need them, contact them. If you know them, thank them. If you don't know them, thank them. If you see them, thank them from six feet away. Just thank them.

Hello Cindi - hope you and Bart are well... I wanted to find out if there are older people in the neighborhood who need help with groceries or any other assistance needed. Many thanks! Nathan Cowles
